Support for Water Customers

Essential Support is being offered to Essential Water customers.

Essential Energy's regional general manager Far West and water operations, Guy Chick said "Essential Support offers help to Essential Water residential, rural or small business customers experiencing financial hardship".

The programme provides practical support and confidential assistance through long term payment plans and advice on how to be more water efficient to help save on your bill.

To find out more about Essential Support call Essential Water on 13 23 91, visit essentialwater.com.au or visit our Essential Service Centre on the Town Square.
